

Pregnant?

You have rights!

A nationwide law called Title IX bans discrimination and harassment against you because you are pregnant, were pregnant, or have a pregnancy-related condition. We're committed to supporting your success and we follow Title IX's requirements to offer:

Changes

If you need reasonable modifications in your classes, exams, or other activities we can help. Changes may include:

Breaks or absences

Larger desk

Virtual instruction

Avoiding chemicals

Leave

You're entitled to medically necessary time off, if you want it.

Supportive Programming

Lactation space

If you choose to nurse, we'll provide a space that is clean, not a bathroom, and private (free from view and intrusion).
