MONTANA
STATE UNIVERSITY

EXTENSION

In this lively and eye-opening session, Dr. Marsha Goetting, MSU Extension Family Economics Specialist, will unravel the surprising ways your current paperwork—and lack of it—shapes your legacy. You'll learn:

- How titling affects who receives your property
- Which decisions Montana makes on your behalf if you don't have an estate plan
- What steps you can take to ensure your wishes—not the Legislature's—determine the future of your land, equipment, and personal property

If you want peace of mind knowing your agricultural legacy ends up exactly where you intend, this program is for you.
